Get directions to the Newport Mansions. Learn more about the Preservation Society's architecture, landscapes and collections, and about its preservation and conservation efforts. The Preservation Society of Newport County preserves and protects the best of the area's architectural, decorative arts, landscape and social history. Its 11 historic properties—including 7 National Historic Landmarks—trace American development from the colonial era through the Gilded Age. The Preservation Society is a non-profit organization accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. Chinese architecture demonstrates an architectural style that developed over millennia in China, before spreading out to influence architecture all throughout East Asia. Since the solidification of the style in the early imperial period, the structural principles of Chinese architecture have remained largely unchanged, the main changes being only the decorative details. The architecture of Canada is, with the exception of that of Canadian First Nations, closely linked to the techniques and styles developed in Canada, Europe and the United States. However, design has long needed to be adapted to Canada's climate and geography, and at times has also reflected the uniqueness of Canadian culture.
