Notes on Editions This is all theory, combining the input from more than 1 source and based on the data published in the early manuals. Other than the actual 1902 1 st edition, the 1903 to early 1915 dated manual have a controversy in the edition numbering. The combine consensus is 1903, 1905, 1907 and 1908 were considered as the 2 nd, 3 rd, 4 th, and 5 th, editions by the authors/USNI. A ship's bell is a bell on a ship that is used for the indication of time as well as other traditional functions. The bell itself is usually made of brass or bronze, and normally has the ship's name engraved or cast on it. Watchkeeping or watchstanding is the assignment of sailors to specific roles on a ship to operate it continuously. These assignments, also known as watches are constantly active as they are considered essential to the safe operation of the vessel, and also allow the ship to respond to emergencies and other situations quickly. These watches are divided into work periods to ensure that the roles ...

...PORT MORESBY VILLAGE (ELEVARA) About a mile and a half from the township, the official name of which is Granville East, though it is almost always called Port Moresby, is the building called somewhat grandiloquently Government House, and a little farther on is the London Missionary Society's station; On the shore between Government House and the Mission are built the native villages of ...
