Anna Teresa Callen, in Food and Memories of Abruzzo, is most engaging as she shares stories of her life and presents the varied food of this little-known part of Italy where she grew up and still spends much of her time. Callen composes a symphony of sounds and aromas to surround the recipes in this memoir-cum-cookbook, describing how her grandmother, cutting pasta for pastina "into tiny dots, made a tic-tac sound with her knife," and recounting how the "pungent smell of coffee wafting from ...Food & Memories of Abruzzo, Italy's Pastoral Land. When the original ingredients (such as types & cuts meat or fish) are not always readily available in those more prissy, prim, Anglicized countries where shopping is at the local supermarket rather than open air market, she recommends helpful alternatives. Author and teacher Anna Teresa Callen grew up in Abruzzo and understands its regional specialties. Here is simple cooking at its best, with flavors kept fresh and clean. The robust tastes will linger, continuing to lure you into the kitchen to bring the joy and abundance of Italy's pastoral land to your own table. Food and Memories of Abruzzo: Italy's Pastoral Land. The distinctive cuisine of Abruzzo, passed down through generations, is unveiled in this landmark cookbook. "A culinary gem for everyone who wants to bring the true flavor of Italy into their home." The distinctive cuisine of Abruzzo, passed down through generations,...
