In a time of loud gestures and ostentation unpretentious buildings, which have been reduced to the essentials with no superfluous decoration. In contrast to this, building simply in the sense of traditional construction methods means, above all, making do with the locally available materials; that is to fall back on whatever building materials the landscape has to offer, in order to save on transport costs and transport energy. In a time of loud gestures and ostentation unpretentious buildings, which have been reduced to the essentials with no superfluous decoration, are soothing in their purity. This new volume in the series In Detail demonstrates the breadth and complexity of the issues involved in building simply, from functional and economic demands, through ...
