The purpose of this page is to provide resources in the rapidly growing area of computer-based statistical data analysis. This site provides a web-enhanced course on various topics in statistical data analysis, including SPSS and SAS program listings and introductory routines. Topics include questionnaire design and survey sampling, forecasting techniques, computational tools and demonstrations. 6 original reading passages for teaching and reviewing figurative language: simile, metaphor, hyperbole, personification, alliteration, onomatopoeia, idiom, and allusion. These activities are perfect for weekly homework, daily/bell work, classwork, review, test prep, or assessment. Each of the 6 passages are ALWAYS appreciated to help offset my yearly website fees. Please no donations from the Northeast Elementary School community ~ I made this website for you. Historical phases of early Buddhist philosophy in India. Edward Conze splits the development of Indian Buddhist philosophy into three phases. The first phase concerns questions of the original doctrines derived from oral traditions that originated during the life of the Buddha, and are common to all later sects of Buddhism.
