About Catherine. Greetings! My name is Catherine, and I am a native of the beautiful and historically rich New Orleans. Graduating from UNO gave me so much more than just a degree; it gave me the ability to face life obstacles and be prepared professionally! In 1980 the New Orleans City Planning Commission divided the city into 13 planning districts and 72 distinct neighborhoods. See Orleans Parish neighborhood map. While most of these assigned boundaries match with traditional local designations, some others differ from common traditional use.
